

ABOUT US

WHAT WE CAN DO FOR YOU AND YOUR ENTERPRISE

Waldorfconsulting is a privately owned executive search company. We advise and support well-known medium to large size corporations in Germany and Europe with their executive search requirements. We can help you to find and select the best managers and specialists for your company. We are also specialized in the sensitive area of exit-interviews. With customized solutions for staff retention and motivation, we can help you reduce your employee turnover. In today's business world this is becoming more and more important as managers and specialists are in high demand.

WHY WORKING WITH US WILL BENEFIT YOU?

Our principles are discretion, responsibility, reliability, and commitment. With a goal-oriented mentality we combine our experience with your needs to find a successful solution. Enjoy cooperation and success with your human resourcing requirements with Waldorfconsulting. We sure you'll be satisfied with the results.

MANAGING DIRECTOR: JULIA WALDORF , MBA IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (EBSI)

Apprenticeship as banker – Study of International Business Administration, Munich Business School, Munich, Madrid and London – professional experience in IT and professional services firms in England and Germany – Conference Manager at Management Circle AG – several years of experience in international executive recruitment consultancy – advising national and international financial institutions, professional service companies and industrial enterprises – over 300 management and specialist positions filled.